

Position Re-Announcement: Research Historian

Historical Research Associates, Inc. (HRA), a company of historical, cultural and environmental resource consultants, seeks a full-time, permanent research historian for its Missoula office. Employment will begin no later than October 1, 2008. Benefits include vacation and sick leave, health and disability insurance, and 401K plan. Salary depends upon experience. HRA is an EEO employer.

A Master's degree in history or related field is preferred; a Bachelor's degree in history or related field is required. Experience in one or more of the following areas is very desirable: Native American history, federal Indian policy, environmental history, water rights, land issues. Applicants must demonstrate excellence and experience in historical research, writing, and interpersonal skills. The job requires travel, research in federal and state records repositories, and interaction with clients, attorneys, government officials, and members of Indian tribes. This is a reposting of a previous job announcement.

Send a cover letter, résumé, contact information for three references, and a writing sample that demonstrates your ability to construct and support a cogent argument with historical evidence to:
